Children from across England and Wales perform in the first ever National Children's Remembrance Concert to mark the 100th anniversary of the signing of the armistice to end the first World War.

Performers include a 2000 strong mass children's choir, Birmingham Schools' Symphony Orchestra, Ealing Youth Orchestra, the debut performance of the National Youth Pipe and Drum Band, Sandwell Youth Brass Band, Birmingham Schools' Guitar Ensemble, Leicestershire Show Choir, plus performers from Wales, Norfolk, Bournemouth and Sutton Coldfield and a Parade of 57 Flags by Scouts and Guides.

The concert is supported by the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government, The Big Lottery, Services For Education, Arts Council England and the Associated Board of the Royal School of Music.

Tickets: £15 each
